Dear Bill,

You have been nominated to be one of the three principal speakers in the 1982 Harry J. Sievers Memorial Lecture Series. As one of the Founders of that Series, you need no introduction to it.

The 1982 Lectures will have their focus on American Foreign Policy. The format as in yesteryear is for the lecture on the Fordham Lincoln Center Campus at 5:00 p.m. followed by an informal reception. In your instance it would further be followed by dinner in your honor should your busy schedule permit.

Hopeful of your acceptance kindly advise the best possible date for you from the period of November 1 through the 18th (avoiding Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays).

Both Fordham and the Center will be most grateful for your participation, believe me.

Warm regards.

Sincerely yours,

R. Gordon Hoxie

P.S. The evaluations of the Thirteenth Annual Student Symposium are most encouraging. Herewith are four representative samples. RGH

P.P.S. Dr. Murray Weidenbaum was quite enthusiastic about the 1981 Sievers lecture, as was our Canadian member, The Right Honorable Joe Clark. All the best, R. Gordon Hoxie
